

The Streets at Barrytowne will provide a family-friendly environment for residents and visitors alike. With retail, residential, office and outdoor public spaces easily accessed by car or by foot, this new mixed-use destination will be a resource and focal point for the greater Northlands area. More importantly, this mixed-use venue will be a source of pride for the community.

The Streets at Barrytowne will offer residents of all ages the opportunity to come together for the kinds of activities that truly define community life, as well as access unique venues in which to shop, dine and be entertained. With ample areas for people to gather – a town square, clock tower and areas for picnicking – The Streets at Barrytowne seamlessly complements the surrounding neighborhood by carefully balancing urban density with open spaces and an outdoor feel.
